

WHAT DOES BOLTON MUSIC CENTRE HAVE TO OFFER?

The opportunity to meet other musicians in a friendly atmosphere.

Training and coaching by experienced, professional Musical Directors.

Weekly rehearsals and an opportunity to perform regularly in public.

A chance to be a member of one of the country's top award winning Youth Ensembles.

Social events and activities including trips and tours in this country and abroad.

All we ask of you is a commitment to weekly rehearsals and concerts as required, and a desire to constantly improve your musicianship.

WHAT WILL IT COST?

Music Centre charges are on two scales depending on which ensemble you attend. You may attend as many ensembles as you like for the same fee!

All new families receive up to one free probationary term. After this period the following payment conditions apply:

FEE CATEGORY:

A	up to 1 term	free
	from term 2	£40
B	up to 1 term	free
	from term 2	£10
E	Free ensemble

Siblings are charged at £10 per term

£40 will be charged automatically if:
A student joins more than one ensemble

£40 will be charged plus £10 per additional child if:
More than one family member attends Music Centre

Some students may be exempt from fees if their families meet the free school meals exemption criteria
